EDUCATION

1979 Boston University, Boston, MA, painting, student of Philip Guston, MFA
1976 Kansas City Art Institute, Kansas City, MO, painting and printmaking, BFA, valedictorian
1973-74 University of Nebraska-Lincoln, NE
1972-73 Scripps College, Claremont, CA

LIFE

Christina McPhee lives and works as an uninvited guest on lands of the Salinan and Chumash communities in central coast California. Born in Los Angeles county, she grew up on the Great Plains. Her work in landscape across media is a forensic approach to materials through a baroque spatial sensibility, connecting energies between the Earth's dynamic self-regulating forces and our own. Her intensive encounter with abstraction involves notions of the glyph, text, site study, and the craft of drawing in painting and moving image.
